

Frank Agugliaro

April 19, 1928 - June 11, 2017

Frank Agugliaro, 89, the devoted patriarch of his family, passed away on June 11, 2017 surrounded by his loving family. Frank was born in Manhattan, moved to New Dorp Beach and eventually settled in Midland Beach with his family. A Man of many talents Frank was a retired NYC Police Officer, WWII Merchant Marine Veteran and long time business owner.

Frank joined the Merchant Marines in 1944, still a teenager; He served with distinction as a boson's mate in the Atlantic and Pacific and Mediterranean serving on several ships. He received several medals and was honorably discharged in 1946. Frank was very proud of his service and could be seen every day wearing his Merchant Marines Veterans Jacket and Hat. He was member of the Staten Island Chapter of the American Merchant Marines Veterans and attended several Memorials honoring Merchant Marines Service during WWII. Sadly he was one of very few surviving member of the small group of World War II Merchant Marine Veterans.

Frank became a NYC Bus Driver on Staten Island for 13 years, before he became a NYC Housing Police Officer assigned to the Anti-Crime Unit serving all 5 boroughs. Frank received many commendations during his long career, but one unexpected honor stands out among them. In the 1960's while on assignment, he delivered a baby, and to his delight, he soon learned that the newborn was to be named after him. He retired in 1982, and then obtained his Private Investigators License and worked on several cases.

Mr. Agugliaro also started the family trucking company, F & A Trucking in the early 60's. He would park his trucks in the backyard of the family home in Midland Beach. All of his children played in and worked on the trucks with him. In 1971 the business relocated to Charleston and became A.K.R. Enterprises Inc. where his 3 sons John, Frank, and Richard worked for many years. Affectionately called The Yard by the entire family, his children and grandchildren would all visit to ride bikes, take rides in trucks and machines, help work the equipment and have BBQ's. The business still operates today with his son John running the business for the past 17 years.

Frank was known as the family handyman, and was called upon often to repair things. He cherished time with his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and his great great grandchild. He enjoyed traveling with his wife. He loved hosting holiday gatherings of family friends and workers in his home and would invite everyone he knew. He was caring and a generous man to all who knew him. He enjoyed luncheons at the Staaten with his good friends from the Merchant Marines Veterans Group as well as his long time friend Charlie Nalbone. Frank had a daily routine which would start with a visit to the barber every morning and then proceed to his favorite breakfast spot Perkins, where all the waitresses' knew him. He would drop in on a different family member every day. From there he would visit his dear wife Marjorie's grave in Resurrection Cemetery where all the staff and workers knew him and would call him by name. He will be greatly missed by his entire family.

Mr. Agugliaro was predeceased by his cherished wife of 62 years Marjorie in 2010. Loving father of Mary Jane Stagno(the late Raymond) John Agugliaro (Patricia), Frank Agugliaro (Cathy), Marjorie Lauria (Thomas), Richard Agugliaro (Loretta), Barbara Agugliaro, and his cherished daughter the late Kathy Longo. Proud and adoring grandfather of 21 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and great great grandfather of one. He was predeceased by his great grandsons David Salvatore Stagno II, and Raymond Charles Wood.

“ I met John in 1980, while working for Barney Taranto. John asked me if I was interested in doing some side work. I agreed and began meeting members of the family, including and most memorably, "Frankie Flash", as I became the official Carpenter for AKR Enterprises.

We would work on Taranto joists by day and then report to "the yard" by evening. I'll never forget how good a Super Towne Burger was from Towne Deli as we worked and ate as a family at 4288 Arthur Kill Rd.

Frank had a tough exterior but if he liked you, you were in. He would overhear me telling John about a project my sons had in school. He'd call Marie and tell her to bring the boys to the yard and he would proceed to have them research on the computer, make copies, enlargements, cover sheets, the works!!

To quote my son Jarrett "I always respected that man, he was scary but very nice"

Frank will be sorely missed by my whole family... Tony Burns

“ I'm so blessed that god chose you as my dad and me as your daughter . We have the most amazing family because of you and mommy . It's incredible the impact that two people can create , thank you for blessing this family with all and who we are . I know you and mommy will make us even stronger now and forever ❤️ .As the baby of the bunch it's very hard to see all my brothers and sisters sad . I love them all very much . No more suffering daddy , you will always be the light in my Emma's eyes and that I will get to cherish for a very long time . No one will ever be as important as her grandpa (G-PA) . I love you , ❤️❤️❤️❤️
