

Frank Arcuri

April 25, 1934 - March 25, 2024

Frank E. Arcuri of Eltingville passed away on Monday March 25 at the age of 89 surrounded by his loving family. Born in Brooklyn to the late Frank and Mary, he proudly served his Country in the United States Army. Frank worked for many years with Salomon Brothers as an Investment Banker. When he finally retired, he found such joy and pleasure working at Mc Donalds in Greenridge Plaza, serving breakfast to his new found friends. Even though he lived less than 5 minutes from work he would leave an hour early to be there on time. While working there he was able to assist his grandchildren in amassing the largest selection of Mc Donald Happy Meal toys.

He was a member of the Oakwood Rifle and Pistol Club and the Elks Lodge of Woodbridge NJ. One of Frank's greatest joys was cooking breakfast on the weekends for his grandchildren and taking the occasional trip to Atlantic City with his wife Camile.

Frank is survived by his loving wife of 39 years , Camile (Lippolis) Arcuri. Beloved father of four, Frank Arcuri (Marie), Anthony Arcuri (Toni Ann), Christopher Aiello (Patricia), and Denise Lo Iacono (John) Grandfather of ten Marissa, Anthony (Kara), Frank (Amanda), Joanna (Jason), Emily, Steven, Gianna, Christina, John, and Joseph Great Grandfather of five Jake, Noelle, Kyle, Jolie, and Frank.
