

Frank T. Bragg

August 9, 1931 - June 29, 2018

Frank T. Bragg, formerly of Huguenot, passed away on June 29, 2018, after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease.

He was born in the Red Hook section of Brooklyn, and settled in Staten Island in 1965. Frank, a chartered property casualty underwriter, worked in the insurance industry for many years and was also an executive at Aetna, Marsh and McLennan and the Department of Defense. He later was a professor at the College of S.I., teaching insurance.

After his retirement, he enjoyed doing crosswords, traveling, movies, loved taking long walks and swimming. He was a diehard Brooklyn Dodger fan and Mets Fan. Frank was a proud friend of Bill W. for many years and very active in the group.

He was a devoted husband for 56 years to his wife, Joan, who passed away in 2004 after a long illness. He was predeceased by his siblings, William, George and Christine (Liz) Askew.

He is survived by his sons, William (Jocelyn), Stephen (Kathryn) and Thomas and his grandchildren, Caitlin, William, Jocelyn, Ryan, Samantha, Joanna and Charles.

A Funeral Service will take place on Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at St. Albans Episcopal Church, 76 St. Albans Place SINY 10312. Interment to follow in Resurrection Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 4-8 p.m. on Monday at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ When I first became a friend of Bill W., Frank was the first person to acknowledge me by name. When someone wanted to celebrate and we never saw them, he taught me about generosity of spirit.

He could also be a trickster, making volunteering seem like a prestigious position such as Chairperson. I'm so grateful to him for being at the start of my journey to light the way. You'll be missed Frank.
