“ As the one year of your passing draws near my dear Brother-in-Law, I am thinking of you. Please watch over your wife and son at this difficult time---and always.

Frank, I miss your one-liners. You had me laughing hysterically--and often. I miss your calm temperament and easy going personality. I miss your loyalty, patience and compassion. Above all, I miss your gigantic heart. Sometimes I think that your heart was was just too big for this world. So God called your heart home.

I imagine you soaring through the heavens, halo askew, cigar in your mouth, listening to rock and roll and laughing at it all. Your robes have the Jets logo emblazoned on them---forever a fan. You are free. You are at peace. You radiate joy. You beam.

We love you.

We miss you.

We will see you one day.

Until then, come visit once in a while....in our dreams, through signs and when we pray.

Heavenly hug with lots of prayers for you...

Rest in peace Frank. I am so sorry to hear of his passing Prayers to the family. Frank was an old friend from Brooklyn. Many fond memories and lots of laughs from our days at "Our Place" and "Johnnys". Frank was always the peacemaker. I remember his love for ZZ Top and singing "New York New York.. Frank say Hi to Greg (Abe) for me.

“ Frank.....I must say that I have never come across a more true and selfless man than you were Frank. Your dedication and Love for Roe and Tom as well as your entire family was never ending. Your passion for your beloved Jets and Mets was as pure and genuine as any fan could be. I was truly blessed to have know you for so many years and to call you my friend. You left us way to soon Frank and you will surely be missed. Continue to lead the cheers Frank and forever Rest in Peace.

You were in the best of men--true blue, loving, warm, kind, patient to a fault, reliable, funny as heck and so generous with your time. Your passing is our great loss and heaven's blessed gain. Thank you for loving my sister unconditionally. Thank you for loving and supporting Tom as your own blood. You could not have loved and cared for them more. It meant the world to our family. I will miss your infamous one liners which had me stitches every time. I will miss your bear-like hugs and your calming centered presence. Your chest was shaped like a giant heart for Christ's sake! I have not the slightest doubt that you are sitting in the highest heaven surrounded by angels---including your Mom, Dad, Steven and your doggy son Mugsey. You are sorely missed. You will remain in the hearts of those of us who loved you eternally ---and everyone loved you. What was not to love? You never said a bad word about anyone.

Go in peace, my brother.

We leave the window between heaven and earth open. So come visit us once in a while in our dreams and signs.

Until we see each other again, enjoy those heavenly cigars and the heavenly golf :-)

I love you.
