

Frank L. Green, Sr.

April 16, 1950 - November 19, 2025

Frank Lee Green Sr. passed away suddenly on Wednesday, November 19th surrounded by his grieving family.

He was born in Brooklyn, NY on April 16, 1950 to Mark & Dolly Green (nee Campo). Frank was an exceptional athlete growing up, starring in both baseball and basketball. He followed in his father's footsteps and joined in the Navy during the Vietnam War. He was awarded a bronze star for his heroic service in Danang. He made his career at both Brooklyn Union Gas and the MTA.

He is survived by his loving wife Angela, his sons Mark (wife Rachele), Frank Jr. (wife Samatha), Erik (wife Michele) and his beloved grandchildren Gavin, Calleigh, Logan, and Frank Lee III. He is preceded in death by his parents and his elder brother, Robert.

Big Frank never new a stranger and treated everyone like a member of his family. He was the life of every party, always wanting you to have one more bite, one more drink, or one more slice of cake (because he bought the Costco-sized cake, of course). He enjoyed attending Pearl Jam, Led Zeppelin & Rolling Stones concerts in his younger days as well as rooting passionately for the Yankees and his other favorite sports teams.

He lived a life of abundance, and will be remembered for his kindness, generosity, and love of music. He loved his family fiercely and we all hope to live well in his honor.

In the words of his favorite artist, Eddie Vedder: Your light's reflected now, reflected from afar. We were but stones, your light made us stars.
