I had NO idea and I am in abject shock - he was a great friend for nearly 40 years - but when he moved to Staten Island, we lost touch. I wanted to call him this weekend, because he was on my mind - only to discover this TERRIBLE news. I am beside myself!

Frank, as friends go, you were the best and I loved you. We shared the best and the worst of times together, but we has so much fun. I am inconsolable. - Ave atque vale! Xoxo!

“ For several years, I would walk my dog past his home and we would greet each other with a happy "good morning" as he sat outside. I wish I got to know him more, as he seemed like a sweet man. My condolences.
