“ Frank was in a way a second father to our Paulie. Even though our Christopher knew him before Paulie met him. Frank was a friend to both. But Paulie and Frank had a special bond. When we lost Paulie, Frank wrote me a letter. In it he told me many things, but the one that will always stand out was when he wrote that “I haven’t written a letter since I was in the Army..” he was a man’s man... but when we’d mention Paulie, he’d tear up; every time. You made a difference, Frank. God bless you and say Hi to those guys up there
