Frank (Francis) Venticinque was born on September 3rd, 1945 to his parents Francesco Venticinque and Catherine Fraumeni. He was born in Brooklyn, New York where he was raised with his siblings Vivian, Salvatore, and Norman. He also met his wife Patricia Venticinque at the young ages of 15 and 17 then not long after got married at the ages of 20 and 22 and they proceeded to be together for 55 long beautiful years. Frank was a butcher for a large portion of his life starting at the bright young age of 16 and he continued until 2014 when he retired at 53 years of being on the job.

In January of 1983, Frank and his family moved to Staten Island where he continued to raise his children, Stefanie (Thomas) Calandra, Peter (Annamaria), Frank (Phyllis). He was a proud grandfather to 7 grandchildren, Amanda, Gianna, Savanna, Jilliane, Steven, Jenna, and Nicholas and his nieces and nephews who he considered his grandchildren, Samantha and Jessica Chiodo, and Justin (godson) and Emily Holmes.

In his down time he loved to spend precious moments with his family, but most especially spent with his grandchildren. He enjoyed watching and attending football and baseball games, being an avid New York Yankees and Giants fan, and sharing that with everyone he loved. Always active and with a smile for everyone he met, he regularly enjoyed long walks around his neighborhood. And his favorite meal to cook and share with his loved ones was his famous breakfast.
