

Fred Neuschaefter

June 11, 1926 - November 18, 2016

Fred Neuschaefter 90, passed away on November 18, 2016, at Eger Health Care & Rehabilitation Center.

Born June 11, 1926 in the Bronx, he moved to Midland Beach as a child and resided in Staten Island his whole life.

In his younger years, Fred enjoyed fishing, with many trips taken to Montauk and he also loved playing horseshoes as well. He entered the service at the age of 18 and served in World War II, traveling to the Philippines. When he came home from the Army, he met the love of his life, "My Marie" as he always referred to her. They were married for 55 years until Marie passed in 2004.

He was a foreman with Queens Farms and Jansen Dairy for 35 years. Fred enjoyed doing crossword puzzles and especially playing solitaire on the computer, for which he was a wiz at right up until his passing.

He was predeceased by his wife Marie (Watson). He is survived by his daughters, Elaine Statile (Pete) and Patty Mahon (Ray). He is also survived by his brother, Bob Neuschaefter and grandchildren Chrissy (Tim), Theresa (Anthony), Joey and Danny.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Monday at 11:15 am at St. Margaret Mary's Church. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Sunday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island.
