

Frederick F. Caccamo

April 3, 1932 - May 25, 2020

Frederick F. Caccamo, 88 of Eltingville passed away Monday, May 25, 2020, at Seaview Hosp. Home & Rehab. Center.

Born Sunday, April 3, 1932 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Natale Caccamo and Jennie Agostino Caccamo.

Frederick attended and graduated from New Utrecht High School and later attended Brooklyn College. He was a Korean War veteran, proudly serving as a Private First Class in the United States Army.

Fred has had two long term jobs, he spent a majority of the time working for ASARCO for 30 years as a sales executive in the steel industry. He also worked at the Bank of New York for 10 years.

Fred was an avid baseball player, always belonging to a baseball team and he especially loved the Yankees. He loved all sports including racquetball, baseball, and paddle ball.

Frederick was the devoted husband to Dorothy Caccamo nee: LaRosa for 63 1/2 years, loving father to Joanne Bauwens, Frederick N. Caccamo, and Rosanne Damon, cherished grandfather of Samantha, Erin, Jackie, Gregory, Joseph, Gianna and dear brother to Dominick Caccamo and his sister Carmela

Salerno, who predeceased him.

Fred and Dorothy were inseparable, they enjoyed travelling all over the country and visiting other countries like Italy. They also enjoyed Atlantic City, theatre, shopping and long car rides together.

Fred cherished his family and was always a caring, supportive and loving individual. He was the backbone of his family and he will be deeply missed.

Internment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family has kindly asked in lieu of flowers that donations to St. Jude's Children Research Hospital or to the Alzheimer's Foundation of America be made in Fred's name.
