

Fructuoso Alicea

February 16, 1940 - April 17, 2020

Fructuoso ❖Frank❖ Alicea was born on January 21, 1939 in Camuy, Puerto Rico.

He was the youngest of 10 siblings. His mother Maria Camuy and father Meliton ALICEA passed away when he was very young. He was 11 yrs old. He went to live with his older brother. He moved to the United States at the age of seventeen years old, he moved in with his older sister in Williamsburg, Brooklyn.

Frank worked as a sheet metal worker until his passing at the age of 81 years old. Incredible!

While at work, he met his beautiful wife Elizabeth. They married on March 27, 1960.

They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary this year.

Frankie loved God, his family, and his job. He was also a loyal Mets fan. He was a provider, protector of his family. He was a man of Honor and Integrity. He was so funny and had a contagious laugh.

He loved animals, always feeding and taking care of the feral cats in his backyard, even the squirrels.

His passing devastated his family, but we know he is resting in Gods loving arms. We will miss him all day, every day. We love you so much and one day we will all meet again.

Frank is survived by his loving wife Elizabeth . His daughter Denise and husband Pablo. His daughter Loida, his son Edgar (deceased) and his son Joel.

His grandchildren Jennifer, Edwin Frank and girlfriend Karen, Alexis and son in law Gary, Brittany , Christian and Edgar.

His great-grandchildren Janaye, Josias, Samuel, Siara, Amarys, Daniel and Madison.

Cemetery Details

Silver Mount Cemetery

918 Victory Blvd
Staten Island, NY 10301

Tribute Wall

“ Fructuoso Alicea

October 04, 2023 at 06:13 PM