“ In the short time I had the privilege of knowing Gail, I could see how deeply she loved and cared for those closest to her. She was a strong and resilient woman.

What stood out most was how close she was to God. She laid her burdens before Him, and now she has found peace and rest in His presence.

Her faith, her love, and her strength will continue to inspire all who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with you all 🙏❤️

Gino John - sending prayers your way. She is with our Lord and her brother. She was an amazing woman and truly loved her family and I was blessed to have her as my Aunt and God mother. Claudia Ann Garrick-Rhodus
