“ Her mom Nanette & I lived next door to each other in Brooklyn & were best friends - I introduced her to Sal. When Nan came home from the hospital after Gen was born, they came to my house & Genevieve slept in one of my dresser drawers. Many years later when I was working at Mike's Place in New Dorp, I did a double take when she sat at one of my tables because she looked so much like Nan... she told me her name & I told her this story. I am so very sorry to hear this news...prayers of comfort & peace sent up for her family & for her safe & swift spirit journey home. Heaven has another angel...
