

George Brady

June 28, 1958 - December 30, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of George Patrick Brady, at the age of 67, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend.

George was a man of deep faith and strong Irish pride a devout Catholic whose beliefs guided him throughout his life. Above all else, he was a family man.

He was strong, solid, and dependable, a true foundation for his family. Tough as nails and rough around the edges, George loved his family deeply and fiercely and always showed up for those who depended on him.

He spent his life working as a seaman and a contractor, building and providing with his hands. There was nothing he could not build or fix, and his children and grandchildren always knew they could rely on him without question. He was always their first call when something was broken.

George was a great cook, known for providing his family with amazing meals made with love and sometimes experimentation. His cooking had a way of bringing everyone together, and his kitchen traditions will be fondly remembered and passed down for generations.

A cowboy at heart, George's home away from home was Texas. He loved Westerns, Willie Nelson, and country music and if you knew him, you knew he never left home without his cowboy hat.

He delighted in telling his grandchildren stories of superheroes and their bravery. His favorite was Thor, whose strength and loyalty reflected the values George carried throughout his own life.

George is survived by his daughters, Kimberly, Kaleena, Christina, Minerva, Frances, and Michelle, and his thirteen beloved grandchildren, who were the greatest source of his pride.

In accordance with the family's wishes, a private church service will be held to honor his life.

George Patrick Brady will be remembered as a man who built not only with his hands, but a lasting legacy of strength, faith, devotion, and love for his family. He will be deeply missed and forever loved, and there is no doubt in his family's hearts that he is now happily reunited with his wife.

Tribute Wall

CO

“ Christy O. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of George Brady.

Christy O. - January 09 at 09:38 AM

FR

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

frances Rand - January 08 at 12:55 PM

FR

“ I hope you know how dearly I miss you, Dad.

Some days, even the smallest steps feel heavy without you walking beside me. Instead of moving forward, I find myself turning back, replaying memories, holding them close like blessings, while time tries its best to carry them away.

My heart won't let go of the space you filled with your strength and your steady presence. I know I shouldn't look for signs of you in every quiet moment, every familiar place, but the truth is, I do. I hear you in the wind, feel you in the stillness, and carry you with me wherever I go.

Every "I love you" spoken now feels different, weighted with longing, because deep down I'm not ready to accept a world where I can't say it to you. You were one of a kind Dad, rooted, steadfast, and true. And for that, I will always be grateful. For the love, for the lessons, and for the part of me that will forever be yours.

frances Rand - January 08 at 12:52 PM

MB

“ 10 files added to the tribute wall

Michelle Brady - January 07 at 08:27 PM

MR

“ Our last words were, “We’ll see each other on the flip side, kid. ^[L]_[SEP] I hope you were right that Mommy has found you and is yelling at you, and I hope she’s laughing at the message I sent with you for her.

I don’t know what I’ll miss more: yelling at you about the smoke smell in my hair, cracking up over stupid things, or your cooking. ^[L]_[SEP] Stay out of trouble up there.

Thank you for being our stepdad all these years. You showed up, and that meant more than you probably knew. Thanks for being such a good grandpa to Mandy, and saving her life at times. Lol

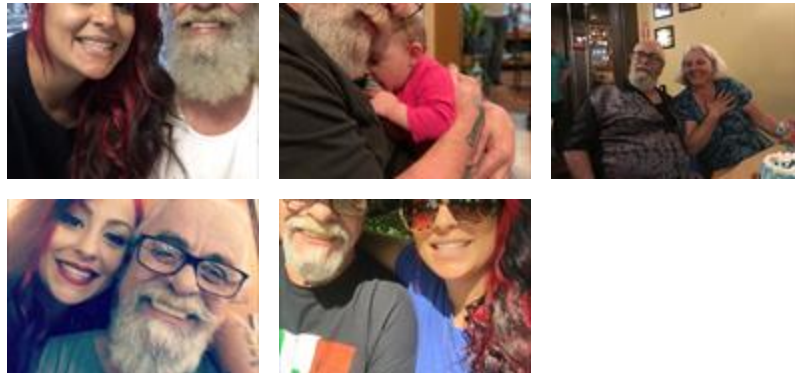

We’re going to miss you more than words can say.
Until we laugh again love you.

Minerva Rosario - January 07 at 10:32 AM

MB

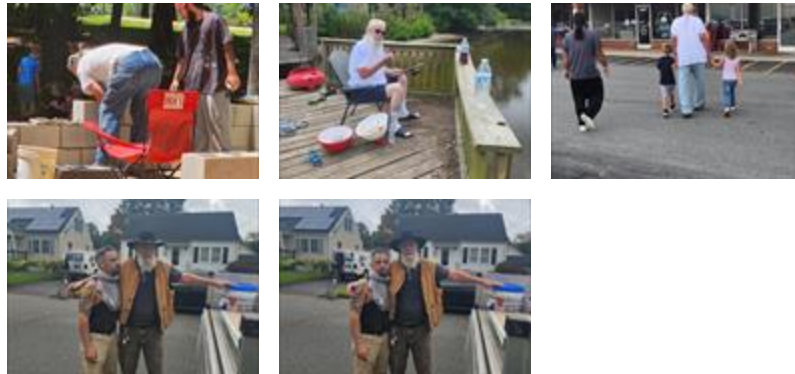

“ 9 files added to the tribute wall

Michelle Brady - January 07 at 09:12 AM

PJ

“ We miss you uncle the babies ask about you all the time we love you and will cherish the memories we have full of love and family the way you enjoyed it most! Love you forever my uncle thank you for just being you always.

Patrick Joseph Brady Jr - January 06 at 09:34 PM

MB

Thank you for posting these, he loved you and your babies so much ❤️

Michelle Brady - January 07 at 08:53 AM