“ I was sad to find out George passed away. I was trying to reach out to him after many decades because of all the memories we had back working on the NSF grant trying to restore a salt marsh on the Hudson River. Min Soo Lee and myself are also responsible for introducing George to skiing. Recently, I have taken on a new venture, I write fiction, one of the minor characters in the book is based on George and I wanted to see if I did his character justice.

We always think we have another day to catch up with those we have lost contact with, but we don't. I will always cherish all the times we had together. Rest in peace.

Always Andy
