

Gerard V. Mazzo

March 12, 1946 - December 12, 2024

Gerard Mazzo, 78, of Rossville passed away peacefully in the comfort of his own home on Thursday, December 12th.

The son of Angelina and Charles Mazzo, "Jerry" was born in Manhattan's Lower East Side on March 12, 1946 and is survived by his wife, Tisa, with whom he recently celebrated their 55-year anniversary.

Also surviving Jerry are his children, Jennifer (Karakosta) of Rossville and Anthony of Great Kills, along with their spouses, Anthony and Christine, and his loving grandchildren - Christopher, James, Anthony and Ava. Chris made him a grandfather, James was his buddy, Anthony was his "financial advisor" and Ava was his princess.

Everyone remembers Jerry as being the person who would help anybody with whatever they needed. Friends were family to him, whether he knew them for 60-plus years or if he met them recently. But perhaps his biggest joy was watching his 3 grandsons and 1 granddaughter grow up to be the caring and respectful young adults they are.

Following 20-plus years working for the New York City Transit Authority as a Deputy Superintendent, Jerry enjoyed retirement watching the Yankees, which made it difficult having grandchildren who are Met fans. He also loved our family's annual Wildwood weekend every September, which was a tradition for over 20 years.

The family will receive family and friends from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Monday, December 16th, 2024, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

A Funeral service will be at 10:30 AM on Tuesday, December 17 th at St. Thomas The Apostle Church located at 50 Maguire Ave, Staten Island, New York.

“ Jerry and I both attend Seward Park High School on the Lower East Side in the early 1960's. We lived in different neighborhoods so we did not interact much back then. During early his early adulthood Gerry became good friends with two of my old neighborhood pals Vinnie Randazzo and Robert Cruz. In the late 1990's Vinnie and Robert started the quarterly Lower East Side reunion dinners. That's when Gerry and I became better acquainted.

Since we both lived on Staten Island. Gerry would always come by my residence to pick me up for our dinners in either Brooklyn or Queens. No matter how often I attempted to pay him for the VB tools during that 20 year period Gerry always insisted that I not pay him for the tolls etc. Gerry was a good heartened and strong willed person. He certainly will be missed by his family and friends. May he now rest in peace along with Vinnie and Robert who preceded him.
