

Gertrude M. Amato

September 8, 1930 - April 28, 2021

Gertrude Amato. Gertrude was born in 1930 to John and Irene Dillon in Brooklyn NY. The oldest of 5, she learned responsibility early in life when her dad passed away when she was 12.

Gertrude had 2 great passions in her life. God and Family. A devout catholic, she made it her life's devotion to live as Jesus taught. She tried to turn the other cheek, and lend a helping hand to the needy.

Her family meant the world to her. Her brothers and sisters were always a dear part of her life.

In 1953, She married Ralph Amato and had four children, Gerard, Ralph, Edward and Mary Anne. As these children grew into families of their own, Gertrude lovingly welcomed and made a place in her heart for each one.

Gertrude always looked forward to a family get together. She truly enjoyed the company of her siblings, children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and close friends.

Gertrude loved the simple things in life. Sitting with family and talking, sharing a meal, playing a game of cards. Her family will always remember her love of sweets! She simply loved a Carvel chocolate malted, or Baskin Robbins chocolate and strawberry Sundae. And cake. Lots of cake!

She joins her parents, sister Margaret, Brothers Bob and Donald, her son, Edward and grandchild Bobby in heaven. May she Rest In eternal Peace.

“ My deepest sympathies losing a sweet wonderful woman like Gertie. I know her as Aunt Gertie by my friendship with the Brady girls but I also know her as a wonderful Mom to her children. She had the kindest and gentle way about her. Sending much love and prayers to family and friends, Mary Mullin
