“ So, so sorry you are gone but happy to have another angel and amazing soul to look forward to reacquaint our friendship someday. You brought me so many fond memories of our childhood. Your family opened your home so we could have parties and just have fun. You were an amazing friend who was there when we needed you but stood in the background when we were all just living life. You accepted and embraced everyone who came and went in our youth. Your smile and spirit was infectious. We lost touch for a long time until facebook came along. When it did, I was so thrilled to meet your family and see your love and happiness. You were a joy to know and I'm so happy you were my friend in this life. My heartfelt sympathies go to Dave and your entire family. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I remember first meeting Grace at our 5th grade Religious Ed class. She was with her best friend Lisa and we all remained friends throughout Junior high and Tottenville High. Grace was always kind, sweet, generous and completely genuine. My prayers and deep condolences are with all her beautiful family. She will be missed.
