“ We were Blessed to have Grace enter our lives when our daughter Maureen met John in college. It was always a pleasure to be in her presence. Her sweet smile , laugh and sense of humor were contagious. We particularly enjoyed her interaction with Aidan. From the hugs he so freely gave , to Grace getting down on the floor to play with him , their interactions filled our hearts with joy and love. Our time with Grace was way too short but oh so sweet ! ❤️ That cute tiny lady will surely be missed but never , ever forgotten.

“ Aunt Grace was the best Godmother, she always made me feel special. She was loving and had the best sense of humor. I remember going to family parties right after Christmas for many years, it kept family ties strong. She and Uncle John are missed greatly.
