“ I wasn't a very experienced driver when I borrowed my parent's car to go to a job interview early in my career. I hit a curb by the Verazanno toll booths and blew, not one, but two tires. Couldn't reach my Dad, so I called my "other" Dad. Dad G. came, calmed me down, got everything fixed, and sent me on my way. Thanks, Dad G. for that memory and all the good food shared and lively conversations had. Peace.
