“ I have known Harlan since my brother Peter and I were kids growing up in Brooklyn. There so many happy memories, so many stories to tell.
It is difficult to pinpoint which is the best time we ever had?
My brother Peter, who was best friends with Harlan, is devastated by the loss of this good friend and so am I.

We all went our separate ways as people do while growing up, but we always kept in touch with each other. Harlan was a close friend of my family and my mom loved him. He, Teresa and his baby girl would come visit at our house. He was very much at peace and a very happy family man. He was a loyal friend and dedicated to his job. We heard the stories of his bravery as a transit policeman and I know that he applied himself to his work as he did with his personal relationships. He gave it everything he had, with his whole heart.

My deepest sympathies go out to Harlan's family, most particularly his wife Teresa and his daughter. For sure he will be in our prayers for a long time to come. We will never stop missing him.
