Helen Lynch, 91, of Larchmont, New York (formerly of Eltingville, Staten Island), passed away peacefully on Thursday, August 28, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Helen Lynch was born in Brooklyn NY, the daughter of Frank and Edna Brenneck. She was a graduate of Prospect Heights High School. After high school Helen began working as a switchboard operator with National Cash Register (NCR) in Manhattan.

Helen married the love of her life, James Lynch in January of 1955. They fell in love as teenagers on Dean Street in Brooklyn, New York. They were married at St Pauls R.C. Church. In 1964, the couple settled in Staten Island, where they raised their four children and created a warm, loving home centered around family.

Helen was a caring devoted mother of four children; James Lynch (Linda-dec'd) Daniel Lynch (Virginia), William Lynch (Janice), and Patricia

Lynch Anderson (Tom). She was also the proud grandmother of eleven grandchildren and great-grandmother of eleven great-grandchildren, all of whom brought her immense joy. Helen was also deeply loved by her many nieces and nephews as well as her many close friends and neighbors. The memories of her life on Ridgecrest Avenue was a joy she held in her heart even after moving to Larchmont, NY. in 2016.

She was an avid reader. Helen found joy in cooking and bringing family together. She loved to share her recipes and techniques with family and friends. Helen also loved traveling and cherished time spent with her husband Jimmy and other family and friends over the years; whether sitting on the back deck shooting the breeze, travelling far and wide or the many summer vacations in LBI. Helen will be missed by so many friends and family. A life well lived.
