“ I will always be so thankful that Henry was my father in law. I was very blessed to have had him in my life the last 20 years. He always treated me with love and happiness. Always thankful for my hospitality. I will cherish the memories through out the years. Holidays, birthdays and countless occasions of nothing less then happy memories. He was truly an amazing man. His love for my kids was never ending. Always happy and caring. I will truly miss him.
