“ I used to work at Chase Bank in Eltingville and Henry was a regular. The last time I saw him was probably 6-8 months ago. He was the nicest man and I always told my coworkers that he was my FAVORITE customer. He always greeted us ladies with "how are you love," and he's the only one that could get away with using that term without insulting us in any way. That's why they had to reach out to me today to tell me he had passed. I'm so sad about this, but happy to have known such a sweet, happy man. I hope you are golfing with your buddies in heaven. RIP Henry.

“ With a very sad heart I am writing this tribute. Hank has been truly a great and sincere friend for close to 60 years. He always looked forward to having dinner with our wives, our weekly luncheon, casino trips and of course, watching our kids growing up. He will be terribly missed. Heaven has accepted one he'll of a great guy. May God bless you Buddy.
