“ I knew Ida when I began work on William and John Street (1990) and each morning I attended mass at Our Lady of Victory on Pine Street. It was easy to make acquaintances with the Wall Street crowd, and Ida and myself always greeted each other at no better meeting ground than church.

Then one day a young man came into our lives wanting to court our daughter Marygrace, and it was then meeting family members that this lovely lady named Ida was introduced as Ronnie's Aunt Ida. All I can say is thank you God for this wonderful friend and I shall pray for her always.
