“ I can't believe you're really gone. My heart is shattered. I'll miss our chats, your hilarious German, New York Italian accent. My how I'd giggle when we talked because of it. You're the person who really knew my mudder, who made so memories with her as children. Married and immigrated four months apart. You two never lost touch. YOU were her best friend. She always said that. Ingrid you've been on my mind so much the last couple of weeks. I'm so sorry I didn't call and check in with you. My heart hurts more than words can express. Thank you for always cheering me on, for the ear you always lent me, for the loving encouragement as I've gone through the last 5 years. This hurts so badly.
