

Irwin Newman

December 3, 1933 - August 6, 2016

Irwin Newman, 82, of Eltingville, passed away peacefully at home with his loving family by his side. Born in the Bronx, Irwin has resided in Staten Island for the past 55 years.

His first career was as a lineotype operator followed by working as the office manager for his son's medical practice. A sports fan, Irwin was an avid paddleball and baseball player. He played an integral role in creating the Tottenville High School Football team, serving as a founding member of the original Father's Club in 1968. Irwin was inducted into the Tottenville Football Hall of Fame in 2013. During his retirement years, Irwin could be found pursuing one of his many hobbies, from stamp & coin collecting to beachcombing along the South Shore, and spending time with his grandchildren.

Irwin is predeceased by his parents, Philip & Bella, and his sisters, Pearl & Esther. Surviving are his beloved wife of 60 years, Estelle (Buchberg); his 3 sons, Bradley & Cynthia of Long Branch, NJ, Philip & Mary of Flemington, NJ, and Mitchell of Cream Ridge, NJ; and his 10 grandchildren Liza & Jason, Morgan, Alexandra, Nicole, Brandon, Justin, Carley, Cole, Lucas and Olivia.

A funeral service will take place on Sunday at 7:00 p.m. at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station),

SINY. A gathering of family and friends will take place on Sunday from 5-8 p.m. Interment will be private.
