Jaime I. Escobar, 51 of Staten Island, New York, passed away on Saturday, November 5, 2016, at Haven Hospice in New York, New York.

Jaime was a beloved father to James A. Escobar and Megan E. Escobar. He was a loving son to his mother Ellen Horowitz. He was the adored brother to his sisters, Ines Logaras, Patricia Golden and Gloria Escobar-Chaparro. Dear Brother in Law to Vincent Logares, Jim Golden and George Chaparro. “ My deepest condolences on the loss of a very special man. His love of his family was his greatest strength. His guitar playing will never be forgotten either. He touched so many lives in so many ways and as my first love he helped shape me into the woman I am today. Jaime will always be with me, deep in my heart and as a beloved friend. It is not goodbye but until we meet again. Thank you for the memories and your love. With deepest condolences and respect.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire family. Jaime was a very influential part of my youth, growing up together in Staten Island where we collectively developed our passion for music. To this day, regularly, memories of countless (late) hours playing guitar together at his home on Cortelyou Avenue are vivid, with his smile and naturally warm personality ALWAYS the focal point. I fondly recall time spent with each others family, and the friendship my Mom had with his. We had occasion to bump into each other at an Allman Brothers concert just a few years back where after a far-too-long hiatus in seeing each other, he picked me out of a crowd and we chatted as if it was 30 years ago. I'll never forget that meaningful moment, nor Jaime, whom I've thought about since with tremendous respect. Take care, my friend.
