James loved to fish, watch movies play basketball and was a long time member of the Holy Child Volley Ball League. He looked forward to trips to Atlantic City where he enjoyed playing the slots. His life was full of activities which lead to many friendships, but the one thing that he loved the most was spending time with his family.

“ Jimmy meant so much to our family. I remember Jimmy riding his bike up and down my block when I was kid. In later years we played volleyball with Jimmy. He made my children laugh and he gave the best hugs. We missed him very much when he moved to Texas but his death is a tremendous loss as he was so loved by so many. Rest in Peace Jimmy! Forever in our hearts.
