

James G. Bungay, III

October 14, 1963 - December 21, 2015

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y. -- James G. Bungay III, 52, a former SIRTOA mechanic, died Monday in Clove Lakes Health Care and Rehabilitation Center, Castleton Corners.

The lifelong Staten Islander was born in Stapleton and grew up in Prince's Bay. He settled in Eltingville in 2000.

Mr. Bungay graduated from Tottenville High School in 1982.

He worked as a mechanic for the Staten Island Rapid Transit Operating Authority (SIRTOA) for 12 years.

He enjoyed working on cars. He also enjoyed fishing and boating.

Mr. Bungay was a parishioner of Holy Child R.C. Church, Eltingville.

Surviving are his son, James; his daughters, Andraya and Tiffani Bungay; his mother, Karen Bungay; his sister, Laurie Cataneo, and two grandchildren.

There will be a memorial Mass on Monday at 11 a.m. in Holy Child Church. The John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Eltingville, handled arrangements, including cremation.
