

James E. Gennari

August 1, 1956 - April 2, 2020

James "Jim" Gennari, 63 of Eltingville, passed away on Thursday, April 2, 2020 at his home.

Jim was born and raised in the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn to the late Warmoon and Eva Gennari. After marry his beloved wife, Karen, they settled in Eltingville in 1985 and raised their three loving children.

He was a printer by trade for many years and worked for various firms in Manhattan. Jim also owned and operated his own printing company, CMYK for approximately 20 years. He then worked as a dispatcher for DeSantis Dispatch and Distribution in Kearney, NJ.

Jim had many passions - he loved riding his motorcycle and playing the drums. He also had a great love of the water, and enjoyed a good day out boating and fishing. His family stated that he was an excellent bartender, always volunteering at a party to take on the task and was known to make a mean drink.

Most importantly, he was a devoted and loving husband and father, who treasured time spent with family.

He was the beloved husband of 36 years to Karen. Loving father to Melanie,

James and Victoria. Dear brother to Robert, Linda, Nancy, Janet, Tommy and the late Tony. Jim is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews and friends, as well as his precious dogs, Pino, Pancetta and Rosie.

Funeral Services will be private. A memorial mass will take place at a later date.

I had the pleasure of working with Jimmy at Desantis.🌸He was such a great guy.even places we may not find common ground on. we always came back to the laughs. This was a shock. I hope his kids& wife know how much he loved them. He talked about his Son going to be a firefighter& his daughter starting her new job. He made a joke saying how much easier to CALL A PERSON on the phone& us telling him No Jim you have to send a text first if they aren't busy they will call you back😞😞😞 JimG job well done🙏 You will be missed.💕
