I'd not seen him for nearly decades when my own father passed and Jimmy was no less gentle and considerate then. He was a great man with a great heart. I send my own condolences and those from the family of Robert Lee, to Jimmy's son, daughters, brother and sister. May he rest in peace.

“ Mr. Lomma ( Jimmy ), frequented our small deli over many years. When he had the time, he would sit and have his lunch, ( sometimes without Frankie ). He would talk with us and joke and break my b****. I remember him giving me a Dale Earnhart hat , after we had a conversation about NASCAR. He owned multiple corps globally, but was really down to earth. always spoke to us on the same level. Good man , we will all miss you. God bless You your friends from Huryk's Deli

“ Mr. Lomma, I know...call me Jimmy. You are truly one of the few Great Ones and will be missed on this earth.

The best memory I have is what you taught me after selling you the second "identical" Boom Launch Trailer that ended up, "Not Identical". A bracket was placed in the wrong location so it wouldn't work; your people had to move it and weld it up at the site. I never forget that phone call from Tom Guzzi; I was home in West Michigan and quickly packed and drove to your office in New Jersey. You asked why I was here when you saw me sitting there when you came into work. I told you to get my butt chewin; you gave me that Jimmy smile and eyebrow look and said get in here. You told me that I should not of driven all that way just for that; our relationship is good. You said, it is mechanical and people put it together; there is going to be problems. But, how I perceive you is what you do to take care of the problem.

Now, how is your daughter and son doing?

God Bless Mr. Lomma, watch over your family!

“ My memories of family have always included the Lomma family, from backyard gatherings on Edgegrove Ave to shared events through the decades. For me, he was always a true gentleman with a shy smile , a defender in tense times, a solid friend and brother, a loving& forgiving father, and a dedicated wonderful son. This is how I will keep him in my memory and how he will be missed in the Times to come. James ,I know you are sitting down to Sunday dinner at Mrs.Lomma's table with the smell of her delicious sauce simmering in the background while you share a story of soaring the sky or sea with Julio and my Uncle Artie. Give them all a hug from me. Rest in Peace now...

“ Jimmy -- You are the rare person who combines in equal measure greatness as a leader of people and a quiet kindness and generosity of spirit that is beautiful, inspiring and exceedingly rare. Your life enriched so many people, including me. I will miss our conversations, your sharp insights on so many subjects that I never heard from any other source, your sense of humor, your hard-earned wisdom and your uncommon courage to confront whatever challenges life had to offer. I am a better and happier man for having had the blessing and honor of working for you for almost fifteen years. May God bless you always.

Whether it be on professional or personal matters, he was not only a very reliable compass during the day, but also a shining beacon on those foggy nights.

I learned a lot from this man. As I get to know him better I find him to be a wonderful person, full of wit and a great sense of humor. We not only talk about business. We talk about many things. We talk about our families and I know Jimmy was a wonderful father to his children. One incident I remembered vividly happened in Atlanta during a crane conference. He was fuming to me about something that I did not do for him. I looked at him and said, 'Jimmy, you need a drink.' He stood silent for a minute and then laugh it off. That's the person Jimmy was. He was tough on business but nothing was personal. I will miss him. Rest in peace Jimmy.*

“ It was a shock to hear of Jimmy's passing as I am sure it was to many more. Though I have only worked for him and have known him for only two years it stills brings me great sorrow. It was only just Friday afternoon that I saw him and he was laughing with Frank Signorelli over a prank that was played on Ed Saunders. I will never forget his kindness and how he always greeted me with a smile. He was a gentleman with a big heart, who valued family, sincerity and loyalty. I will never forget him. He will be missed. My prayers and condolences go out to his family. May God cradle you with his love and strength. Rest in peace.

Kind regards,

“ My condolences to the family and friends. I feel deep sorrow upon hearing about Jimmy's passing because he was not only my Boss for many years, but also my mentor. I will always remember all the opportunities and advice that he has given me throughout my life on many occasions as his employee. I thank him for this and for all of his kindness. He was the best Boss I ever had. He will be missed terribly. May he rest in peace and God Bless.
