James D. McGuire, 85, passed away Wednesday April 10, 2019. Loving husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother, and friend.

He was born and raised in Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn NY, where he graduated from Alexander Hamilton High School. Then moved to Annadale section of Staten Island with his wife, Patricia, in the 1960s to raise his family. A proud United States Navy veteran, served in the Korean War, and a retired FDNY fire fighter at engine 151 in Tottenville for close to 30 years and retired in 1984.

He was the beloved husband for 60 years to Patricia (Allegretti) McGuire. He was a devoted father to sons James McGuire and his wife Sandra, Keith McGuire and his daughter Lauren Esposito and her wife Dean. A beloved brother to Dennis McGuire and the late Geraldine Shotigian, Robert McGuire. He was also the cherished grandfather and great grandfather to Andreina Ottman, Ariana McGuire, Kristian Bulka, Matthew, Meghan, and Kaitlyn McGuire, Dean and Ava Esposito, and great grandfather to Gia, Robert, Joseph and Emma.

He loved life and lived it to the fullest, doing what he loved and enjoyed the most. He was an avid Met fan and would not miss a game. He also enjoyed getting together with his buddies for lunch because he couldn't wait to tell them his next joke, he loved to make everyone laugh, he was the biggest jokester around. He loved betting the horses with his lifelong friend Al Hershenson of 75 years.

His home away from home, in Deerfield Beach Florida, where he loved to be with his wife at his beachfront condo where they took long walks and enjoyed beach life.

We can't forget his passion for health and having a great physique. He enjoyed working out and exercising his whole life because he was proud of building his body and showing it off.

But most of all his time and dedication was to his wife, children and grandchildren who he loved unconditional and was always there for them.
