

James Edward Pruitt

January 23, 1947 - September 16, 2016

James Edward Pruitt, 69, left us on September 16, 2016, peacefully in his sleep to rejoin his beloved wife, Joan Ellen (Powell) Pruitt.

He was born January 23, 1947 in Yukon, WV to the late Ellis Davis Pruitt and Nicolina (Cangro) Pruitt. He was raised in Staten Island, NY and is survived by his daughter Kim, son James, his sisters Patricia Kelly and Adele Miano, his brothers David and Roman and many nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends.

He was a graduate of New Dorp H.S. James voluntarily joined the United States Marine Corps in 1964, and proudly and bravely fought in Vietnam. After leaving the service, James helped to install the first computer system in Wagner College, and later joined Local 28 as a Sheet Metal Worker.

He and his family resided in Ormond Beach, FL for nine years before returning to Staten Island. After his retirement, James relocated and settled in Inverness, FL.

A funeral service will take place at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery.

The family will receive friends 6-9 p.m. on Friday at the funeral home.
