“ Jane was my cousin, not cousin, cousin, Jacob let Linda explain... lol! We shared memories and moments together all our childhood. She was another sister when I had none. She was always bossy! So bossy in fact Linda and I had to form a union in order to compete with her infamous strength of spirit! Jane was always happy and as we grew up and ended up in High school together we sang all the time in Choir, SING, and we even wrote and conspired songs together for a while before we graduated High School! It is one of my favorite memories. She on the keyboard, a notebook in hand writing songs and working out tunes. We both had a fever for singing! She always inspired since she was young and not soon after I followed my dream, after we graduated and she went to Albany. I made a record and she was always proud of me. Jane my cousin, whose laugh lit up a room and sassy spicy words, always felt like a rhythm when she spoke, you will be missed. Thank you for the memories and for having the honor of calling you my cousin.

“ What can I say about Jane? She was the BOMB!! She didn't need a roadmap she knew her destiny and she followed it! She was a SUPER MOM and FRIEND, she ALWAYS kept it REAL!! We had the pleasure of working together @ NYCDSS/DHS; and hit it off from day #1... Continue to "SHINE IN PARADISE" like light the bright star you were!! Until we meet again my friend - we will dance to our favorite music!!!

“ Greetings, I went to Midwood and SUNY Albany with Jane. She always had a big heart and such a beautiful soul. She looked out for everyone and wanted people to live their lives and have fun. We have not spoken in years but I still shed tears when I found out because the world is truly missing a bright star. I'm so sorry.

“ Jane made work memorable. She often greeted me with a warm smile and would say "hey sis".
Jane was knowledgeable and had a teach one mentality. She shared what she knew and I am grateful that she was willing to share.
To her family, know that Jane is now with the ancestors and will rest in paradise.
