

Jared King

August 11, 1977 - March 23, 2020

Jared King of Huguenot passed away on Monday March 23, 2020. Born in Brooklyn Jared attended Tottenville High School and St. Joseph by the Sea High School where he excelled in Baseball. He then attended the New York Restaurant School. After graduating he embarked on a career in the food service industry, which took him from Staten Island, to some of the most renowned restaurants in Manhattan and back to the Island. During his career he had the opportunity to learn from some of the most renowned Chefs in the restaurant business.

He was a chef at Windows on the World, the Morgan Library, the Mandarin Oriental, he then came back to Staten Island where he showcased his culinary expertise at Vinum, The Richmond, Richmond Republic and Vice. Jared also had his own catering service and he worked as a Private Chef.

He enjoyed going to the Gym, spending time with his family, and friends. Even though he made his living as a Chef, he enjoyed and took pride and pleasure in preparing dinners for family and friends. When he was younger he played for Babe Ruth Baseball league, and travel baseball as well.

Jared was a warm giving person, which was demonstrated by the respect and inspiration he showed to so many in his AA meetings where so many looked up to him and relied upon him for advice and assistance.

He was the loving father to Austin and Hunter, devoted son of Lawrence and Lorraine, beloved brother of Ian, Tara, Patrick and Timothy, fond Godfather to Mateo, he is also survived by his dearest companion Josephine Ciraulo.

Jared was truly an amazing soul. He was a great father, friend and all around person. Jared loved his little boys more than anything in the world and you can see they felt the same about their dad. He was passionate abt the things he loved and being a chef was one of his biggest accolades. One of my funniest memories of Jared was when he bought my daughter a hover board and I said we have to hide it from my dad because hell flip abt our genius hover board lesson idea. As Jared turns around from the register he bumps faces with a man he has yet to meet. That man coincidentally was my dad . I was behind him with my hand over my mouth trying not to laugh at how his first encounter w my dad was with hover board in hand for his grand daughter. But as you all know Jared somehow he got out of that situation leaving my dad with a smile on his face. Only Jared could have pulled that off. God rest both of their souls. 2 good men God know has. 🙏
