“ I didn't know Jason as an adult, only as a baby briefly. I was married to his Uncle Richard Scelfo, his mother, Margaret's, brother. Richard and our daughter, Leonora used to visit Jason when they were both growing up and always had so much fun together. I just wanted to share how much his Uncle loved him and how often he spoke of him. Uncle Richard admired Jason greatly and was always so very proud of what he had accomplished in his young life. Richard always spoke so lovingly of his family, his wife Cathy, and his two children, as well. My heart goes out to all of them and to Jason's Mom. May the Lord comfort them somehow in the days and years to come. We can never know this side of Heaven, why Jason had to leave this Earth so young. I am so very sorry for the Cava and Scelfo family's loss. They will remain in my prayers. <><

“ Jason and I were good friends all through Port Richmond High School--in fact, he was one of the first new friends I made there as a freshman. With our last names both starting with "C", we sat next to each other in many classes and shared so many laughs as well as intellectual efforts, newspaper crossword puzzles and word jumbles, band concerts and cafeteria lunches. We parted ways after high school, but I always considered him a lifelong friend and one of my favorite people from high school. I'm so sad knowing his light has gone out of this world. My deepest sympathies to his wife, children and family.

“ I worked with Jason for about a year and a half in Manhattan Criminal Courts before I moved on. Jason was perhaps the funniest and wittiest person I met in the NYPD. He was sharp as a tack and always willing to help his co-workers out, myself included. He could make you laugh with a look, loved inside running jokes and always talked with love about his family. Like so many others, I will sorely miss him. Rest in Peace, Jason.

“ Jason and I were both in the same Police Academy class in 1990... Company 90-27. He always made us laugh and had a great way about him. He went off to the Housing PD and I went off to the Transit PD and regretfully I lost touch with him.

Thank for the laughs and the great memories buddy...Rest easy...
