

Jay Yovino

January 21, 1937 - May 13, 2018

James Yovino, 81 passed away on Sunday, May 13, 2018, at Staten Island University Hospital South..

Born Thursday, January 21, 1937 in Brooklyn, New York. he was the loving son of James A. Yovino Sr. and Elizabeth (Dicinni) Yovino

Jay as everyone knew him, was a member of the Staten Island Train Club and loved to build model trains. A former member of the Pittsburgh Pirates Minor League Farm Teams, Jay was an avid sports fan who was a loyal fan of the St. Louis Cardinals..

He loved to sing and had an excellent voice. Jay was always quick with a joke and is remembered by all as the "Jokester". Loretta, his wife, can remember Jay greeting people on thier way into church one evening, (The church had lost power and was without lights) and Jay would tell everyone "Welcome to Midnight Mass".

Jay was the beloved husband of Loretta (McCance) Yovino for 59 years. Loving father of Jay Yovino and Jennifer Langstang. Adored father in law of Toni Ann & Calvin. Dear brother of Pat Bloukos and Judy Caniglio. Cherished grandfather of Jay, Christina, Anthony, Frankie, Joseph, James and John and his great grand daughter.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 AM on Thursday at St. Patrick's Church located at 53 St. Patrick's Place Staten Island, New York 10306. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM and 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Wednesday, May 16, 2018, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ great man..... every time I called him I would say.... "hey Jay how are ya".... he would respond " I wish I was in Hawaii"..... I had the pleasure of working with him....but.. beyond that we became friends....he taught me so much... old school stuff... we talked together... walked together.... he always made people smile.... always a quick joke to make a persons day..... I'll never forget when I told him that I had my dad's Lionel Trains (circa 1928)... I brought them into work one day.... the glow that he had on his face when he saw them was simply wonderful.... we went to a bunch of train shows together... York PA was the big one.... we would meet and take a bus down there...I will always remember that glow ... for ever.... I love you my friend..... be well Mrs. Yovino.... talk soon

“ Dear Loretta... We are very, very sorry to hear of Jay's passing. As you know, I served as his best man at your wedding 50+ years ago. Jay and I grew up in East New York Brooklyn and played every imaginable ball game ever conceived: punch ball, baseball, softball, king, triangle, stoop ball, and some others that we invented. He was one of my best friends, a thoughtful, sincere, honest, hard working, and funny guy who told the worst jokes I've ever heard – I know that you suffered through them for many years. He will be sorely missed and the world will not be the same without him. Our sincere condolences to you and the family – please let us know if there's anything we can do for you going forward... May he rest in peace,

PS

“ I lived next door to Jay and his family all my growing up years. No matter the circumstance's Jay always greeted you with a friendly smile and a joke. He always was willing to lend a hand and never had a bad thing to say. One thing I'll remember the most, was his beautiful train layout in his basement and he was always the first to put up holiday decorations outside which I always looked forward to see. He was a joy to know growing up and our family was very lucky to have him and his family living next door. Jay, your humor was a gift from God and I'm sure when you meet our maker you will make him laugh too.
Rest in peace dear Jay.
