“ I Love Jeanette!! She was more than a co-worker at Macy's. She was my friend. She had so much wisdom, an abundance of care for others, she was very funny!! She was a very strong, and supportive person. I will never forget all of the laughs we shared. I'm sure she is making the "lunch list" for everyone in Heaven. Rest In Peace, "lunch witch".

Gone but never forgotten. ❤️

“ So sorry to hear of Jeanette’s passing. We worked together in Macy’s Furniture for 13 years, and I was always impressed with her close bonds to her sons and especially her beloved grandsons. All you had to say was “ How are the kids?” and her face would light up with pride.

She always wore beautiful jewelry, and I would always compliment her taste. One day I wore a new costume jewelry necklace and she said “ You know what, Mary? I just bought earrings that would match that necklace perfectly. I’ m going to give them to you.” She refused payment, so I ended up buying her lunch as a thank you. I still have the earrings, and I will think of her whenever I wear them . God bless you Jeanette, and Rest In Peace. Mary Guerriera
