“ In many ways you never really have any friends later on like the ones you had when you were 12, and a part of your childhood leaves forever as those best friends pass away. JC, I will always cherish the countless laughs we shared, and the incredible amount of good times we had growing up. And thanks again for being one heckuva' shortstop -- The Guzzlers rule!!

My family extends our deepest sympathies to Vera, Jeff and Alexandria - we hope that the pain you're feeling now is nothing compared to the joy found within the wonderful memories of the time you had together.
