We have known JennyAnn and her family for many years. Growing up with her and having her around was always nice. We will miss having her around by the house for dinners. “ Dearest sweet, beautiful JennyAnn, How Blessed am I having shared such love-filled & joy-filled moments of life's journey with you and your life-long Best sister~friend Karen! I will forever cherish our shared moments of uncontrollable belly laughs while out dining at our bi-annual girlfriend gatherings! The 3 of us certainly had a special and unexplainable connection. The tears, the laughs, and our caring hearts were always part of us being together. My heart hurts for us all but knowing that God needed you to be a special Angel and a Bright Light in All of his Heaven Above, comforts me. May you rest in peace "sweet" JennyAnn. Sending my love, sympathy, and prayers to your mom, Karen, your family, friends, and all of those who knew you for all the lives and hearts you touched! Thank you for forever touching mine!! I love you, Joann~Jo

“ To my Beautiful Forever Friend. The golden threads that weaved a delicate enduring friendship for more than 35 years will be everlasting in my heart. We had a sister bond which was a special gift that many friends never experience. The patience of listening, holding hands in times of need and the laughter we shared will always be in my heart. Justin is heart broken as you were his Godmother. You were my Maid of Honor and much more to my family. You will be missed and your memory will forever be in our hearts.

To our 146 moments!
