September 16, 1940 - July 26, 2025

Jeremiah J. Harrington, 84 of Eltingville, passed away on Saturday, July 26, 2025, at home surrounded by the love of his family.

Loving father of Christopher Harrington and Tricia Devine. Cherished father in law to Thomas and Daniella, grandfather "Pop" to Nick, Andrew, Kyla and Dylan and friend to many.

Jerry was a proud graduate of LaSalle Academy and John Jay College. Jerry spent over 55 years in law enforcement, first as a Detective with the NYPD and then as an Investigator at the Manhattan District Attorney's Office (DANY), he was always happy to talk about his days as a Motorcycle Cop. He would always say when he was there it was called Motorcycle 2 not Highway.

Jerry spent several years as a New York Army Reservist, he took pride in serving our country as well as our city.

Jerry loved family trips to LBI and Disney with his grandchildren. The pain of the Dodgers leaving Brooklyn never left him.

he was the dad I never had! I remember leaving a stupid party hosted by the DA's office. He followed me home and made sure I was on the subway at that point I was ok to go home.
