“ she loved dancing. We used to go dancing every Saturday night and we had so much fun. I remember I had a dog and she did not know. When she came to my house and open the door this little dog went to greet her and she slammed the door and almost fell down the stairs The funniest part is that the dog was 3 months old and she was so scared of it. We always had a laugh when we told the story to other friends. She was always there for me. Even when she was in so much pain after her surgeries and after mine, that we ended laughing out loud. I will never forget my Joann

“ JoJo and I met on line 15 years ago. I warned you about a freind of mines intentions. Every since we have been freinds. You opened your heart and home to my family. You were my maid of honor at my wedding. You were there when my Mom passed. You were there when all heck broke loose after the passing of my future daughter in-law. When both my grandchildren were born. I was there when you had your accident both weddings of your daughter. We were each other's sounding boards and someone to talk to about the joy and sadness in our lives. I will miss you my dearest freind. Thank you for all the things we shared. Say hi to my Mom and catch her up on how her family is doing. Love you so much I will miss you dearly.

“ I met Jo at the VA 14 yrs ago. I was fortunate to have worked with her. I enjoyed seeing her in clinic twice a week and chatting with her about our work. She was a lovely person who cared deeply about her patients. She would give them a really hard time when she learned they were not taking care of themselves properly, and it always came from such a genuine place that they could hear it and make changes. She was a really great nurse. I admired how open she was with her feelings and letting people know how much they mattered to her. She touched so many people in her life. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her. -Shalini Sehgal

“ I met JoAnn close to 25 years ago when she was in GI as the procedure nurse. we became friends the moment we met. She was a caring heart. After she retired we were still driving mates talking to eachother almost every day it was only within the past 1 and 1/2 years that the calls became less frequent as she was either having therapy, not feeling well or busy with her health aide. I cannot believe she was 70. will miss my telephone driving partner. Love Ya Jo Toni
