

Joan E. DePrizio

March 30, 1933 - November 16, 2020

Joan E. DePrizio, 87, passed away on Monday, November 16, 2020, at her residence surrounded by her loving family.

Born Thursday, March 30, 1933 in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of the late Ralph and Martha Spinelli.

Joan graduated early from Fort Hamilton High School and started working in New York City soon after. She married Ralph in 1954 and together they raised their 6 children.

Joan worked at Methodist Hospital in the late 1960s and worked her way up to Director of Admissions and a seat on the Board. She was instrumental in starting and running the hospital's Ladies Auxiliary and gift shop for over 25 years until her retirement in 1994.

Joan and Ralph became restaurant owners in Park Slope in the 80s. She loved to travel with her husband and close friends, her favorite place being Italy. She loved the food so much she even smuggled a few artichokes back (along with some Florence Gold).

What she loved most was her family. The family gatherings were legendary with great food, music and the sharing of stories. She was truly dedicated to her work and family. Our mother will be greatly missed.

She was the beloved wife to the late Ralph, who passed away in 2000.

Loving mother to Susan Cosentino, Raymond DePrizio, Carol Henry, John DePrizio, Claudia Cattano and Robert DePrizio. Fond mother-in-law to Michael Cosentino, Michele DePrizio, Donnie Henry, Nancy DePrizio, Art Cattano and Patricia DePrizio. Dear sister to Ralph Spinelli and Susan Goldberg. Dearest sister-in-law to Carol Spinelli and Michael Goldberg.

Joan was also the devoted grandmother to her 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.
