“ Although our communication of these past years were through Facebook, I hold so many memories of us growing up. You were not only my cousin but my closest friend. So many memories are flashing through my mind but two in particular stand out. You and I were with Jimmy (your brother) riding around in his Triumph. The smallest car I've ever been in. All we did was laugh uncontrollably the whole ride. What fun....The other memory was when we were 13 and they opened a Club for teens in Brooklyn called "Hullabaloo". We thought we were so cool. We met these guys, who at the end of the night, asked to drive us home. We lied and told them we had our own car and wouldn't need their ride. As we were lying through our teeth to act so cool, who walks in the Club but your Dad, calling out our names, as loud as he could, that he's been waiting outside to take us home. Mortified were we, to say the least! So many other memories, I will hold in my heart, too many to share. You are in Heaven's peace with our loved ones who left us all too soon. You will be missed beyond words, Joanie. All My Love Always, Patricia
