

Joan Sellitti

September 1, 1930 - May 28, 2016

With great sorrow we mourn the loss of Joan Sellitti . Born in Brooklyn, Joan was a long time resident of Staten Island, spending over the last 50 years in Annadale, in the house designed by her and her late husband Anthony. she passed away at home on May 28th, 2016 surrounded by her loving family and friends. A long time active parishioner and volunteer at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church , Joan also volunteered for Meals on Wheels, delivering food to the home bound and elderly as well as donating her time to the Auxiliary at Staten Island University Hospital South.

In her spare time she enjoyed crocheting and spending time with her family. Her husband Anthony predeceased her in February 2015. She is survived by her son Paul, her daughter Marianne Bublitz and her cousin Henry Butow.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Wednesday 11:00 AM at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery.

A Memorial gathering and celebration of Joan's life will be held Wednesday evening from 7-9 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals celebrating her life

“ Mrs. Sellitti,
You were always a gracious and generous hostess to me. Your kindness, sense of humor, and devotedness to family were to be admired. God has brought home an angel, and we will miss you. I will always remember your love of the beach and your gorgeous tan, and especially your beautiful daughter.
My condolences to Paul, Marianne, and Dennis; I know you all worked hard to ensure her final days were ones filled with love.
