“ JoAnn, may you rest in peace. I so enjoyed working with you and Josephine in my Kimball days especially when it was JCAHO time. Our late nights working in my office on the floor with everything laid out neatly and quite organized. When Bill called, I told him you had left 10 minutes prior to his call. You always knew it was your cue to leave. So many laughs and talks. How I miss that. You were always the light when entering a room, not knowing what to expect....a true force to be reckoned with. My condolences to your family and friends. May their love and fond memories of you sustain them now and in the future. Miss you my dear friend. SMOOCHES ❤️ Wini
