

Joanne C. Marino

August 16, 1946 - January 11, 2023

Joanne Camille Marino, 76, passed away on Wednesday, January 11, 2023, peacefully at home with her family by her side.

Joanne was born in Manhattan and raised in Woodside, Queens. Joanne married the love of her life, Sebastino Marino on June 1, 1974 at Corpus Christi Church. With Sal, she lived in Brooklyn and eventually settled in Annadale in 1989 where they raised their family.

Joanne was the beloved wife of 48 years to Sebastiano and loving mother to Margaret and Joseph and his wife Lorraine. She was the devoted grandmother to Ariana, Francesca, Gianna, and Annalise and she also adored her puppy Daisy Mae. Joanne is survived by her brother James Ragusa and sister Judy Ragusa and predeceased by brothers Joseph and Jeffrey Ragusa and sister Jacqueline Ragusa.

After retiring from Sears where she worked for over 20 years, Joanne spent all of her time with her family and friends. She loved cooking and baking. Her specialty was her seven-layer cookies. Joanne loved being with her family and attending family parties. All who knew her admired her for her strength and courage.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 - 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 17, 2023, at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York

“ We are so heartbroken to hear that our beautiful cousin Joanne has passed away. She was beautiful inside and out. Always loved getting together for our family picnics. We already miss her and she will always be in our hearts. Sending our sincere condolences to Sal, Joseph, Margaret, Lorraine and especially her beautiful granddaughters. May she Rest in Peace. Love you always Joanne. Audrey, Anthony and Adam .

To the Marino Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I only knew Joanne as a neighbor but I can see what a beautiful family she raised and how happy they were. Sorry for all the pain and suffering she endured the last few years. She will be so missed. Prayers for your family, Barbara Lombardo
