“ To my dear nephew Joel. You were my big sister's youngest. I remember when you were born and growing up. Now you leave behind loving children and grandchildren of your own. Where did the years go? I thank God that you were a part of my family. I'll always remember your gentle nature. I never heard you say a bad word about anyone. I know you are now in the holy presence of all the family that went before you, including my brother, your Uncle Tommy, who died just a day before you. I know you were both welcomed with open arms by our good Lord and the smiling faces of your Mom and Dad and all the others. (We were always recognized as one family by our big, broad smiles!) You are now at peace with no pain or restrictions. Until we meet again, I remain your loving Aunt Jessie.

P.S. Please give everyone a hug for me.
