

John Robert Carlesi

August 29, 1967 - July 6, 2025

John Robert Carlesi passed Sunday, July 6, 2025, at the age of 57.

John was born to the late John and Concetta Carlesi and raised in Carroll Gardens,

Brooklyn, graduating from LaSalle Academy, 1986. He continued his education at St

Leo University, FL graduating with a BS in Physical Education. While at St. Leo, he played Division II baseball in several positions, including second base.

Following college, John started teaching at PS230, where he met the love of his life,

Diane. They married and worked together; along with his mother Connie, for over 30 years, making PS 230 their second home.

John followed his love for baseball throughout his adult life, coaching numerous teams, and working many summers with his cousin Vinny at their family sport camps. In 2002, John became Head Varsity Baseball Coach for Stuyvesant High School and has been there until his passing. As Head Coach, John led his team to many winning seasons and was honored with several coaching awards, including 2024 PSAL Coach of the Year.

Throughout his career, he has made an impact on thousands of children and will be greatly missed.

In addition to baseball, John loved fishing, boating and spending time with his cousin

Gerard, and his family at Breezy Point. John was caring, thoughtful and devoted to his family. He would do anything for anyone and was always ready to give a hand. He was a dedicated educator and baseball coach, working tirelessly with his colleagues, students, coaches, and baseball players.

His sense of humor always made everyone around him smile. John loved Superman and was an avid collector. Quoting one of his colleagues, "The world has lost a Superhero." John is survived by his loving wife Diane, his brother Vincent Carlesi and his wife (Kristin Carlesi), his mother and father in law Michael and Angela Bonelli, sisters in law Lisa Bonelli, Michele Craffey (Keith Craffey), Andrea Voutour (Michael Voutour), along with many nieces and nephews and loving cousins.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 AM on Friday at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Rd Staten Island, New York 10312. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

John taught me in 230. He's gotta be one of the nicest people in the world. He was such a good friend to me and a great teacher. There's truly not too many people on this earth that is pure as John is John taught me how to shoot a basketball to hit a basketball ball and tie my shoes and when I became a young man in trouble, he helped me out multiple times you would truly be missed (Matthew Budgell)

I was in 2nd grade when John started as the PE teacher alongside Mr ebanks. He was a great mentor. When I got older and was getting into trouble he would bring up to the 230 gym just keep me off the streets and from getting in trouble. He will be missed by many. Gone but never forgotten. -Leran B.

Best gym teacher I've ever had. Had him along with Mr. Dorata at 230, he was awesome and we always talked about baseball. He remembered me immediately when I saw him at a Stuy game a couple of years after I graduated. Awesome guy.

“ John was my teacher at Ps 230 from 1994-1996 4th-6th grade. John change my Life. He knew i had no father figure, he took me fishing brought me to his baseball Sleep away camp for FREE a few summers at Hofstra University. Six Flags many times the movies birthday gifts. I cant remember everything it so much. Johns actions gave me Hope as a kid, he was the First person that i New cared for me just because he did. My mother Loved him because of how he treated me. As did i. Lastly, At this very moment i am in a program called “teaching fellows” to become a DOE teacher. The program started Last week for the in person summer school part of it and master classes + other trainings. We were asked why we want to become teachers and were there any teachers that we remember significantly? John was the teacher i mentioned. I just got this news of his passing today Friday July 11 at 6pm. Thank you Mr Carlesi. Christopher V I’m terribly sorry for your loss Diane. And to the rest of the family. IG: @theneighborhoodlegend

“ Coach Carlesi was a positive role model in all of our lives, both on and off the field. He always took the time to make sure we had everything we needed to succeed, from extra hours in the batting cage, to helping with getting our course schedules settled with the Stuy program office to making sure we could make it to games, to simply knowing which bodega across the street from P.S. 230 we should use because it had the friendly guy behind the counter and the cat in the back. Coach knew how to build a community and instill a mindset in his players of accountability, hard work, and togetherness that was contagious. He helped foster a sense of camaraderie within us by always ensuring we picked each other up, win or lose. Even more so, Coach taught us to treasure one another and the bond between us long after we step away from the diamond. As we approach 11 years since we all first met each other, our friendship is as strong as ever, and it was only made possible because of Coach.

“ The Baseball world in NYC was Rocked Sunday by the loss of Coach John Carlesi. Died suddenly in his sleep on Sun. You have to understand, he WAS baseball! He was a coach's Coach and was often referred to as the best coach in town. He managed to put up a winning record every year with Stuyvesant - the #1 hardest school in the city. (Kids not only had a 4.0 but would get a perfect 1600 on their SAT's) He used to lament how hard his job was because he couldn't recruit the way other schools could because you have to be a genius to go there. He just prayed they'd get three athletes with every class. And yet. EVERY year. Winning record. Plus, he and his brother ran a baseball camp in FL that High Schools and Colleges use every year. My son Coop has worked with him since 7th grade and will be pitching in college in great part due to John. All that said, it ALL pales in comparison to his heart. He was just a Solid Guy. A Good Man when so many of us have forgotten what that means. Flights of Angels buddy. You WILL be missed. ☐☐☐

“ My heart is broken at the tragic loss of our dear friend Coach John Carlisi. Coach was my son Milo's 'baseball father.' When we moved to Fort Hamilton Parkway in 2005, Milo was just 9 and he met Coach Carlisi soon after. So much more than a coach, he loved all his boys and was a true mentor. When Milo took the test for Stuyvesant it was for one reason only, to get to play for Coach Carlesi. Although he just missed getting in, Coach never stopped supporting Milo as he grew from a little boy who loved to play baseball to a young man. On behalf of the entire Sklar family, I send my love and support to Diane, Vinnie and the entire Carlesi Family. Coach Carlisi touched so many lives. May his memory be a blessing for all of us who were lucky enough to have known him.

“ John – the man, the myth, the legend.

Working with John was more than just a job — it was an experience filled with joy, laughter, and light. He brought so much life to every moment, always ready to lend a hand without hesitation. Never a complaint, never a sigh — just that signature phrase of his: “No worries, I got it.” And he always did.

One of my favorite memories — and our very last interaction — was when we were walking into 230 doors together. He was holding the door open for me, as he always would. I was so genuinely happy to see him that I called out, “Hey friend!” — forgetting any formalities. He just laughed that warm, familiar laugh and said, “It’s okay, I’m honored.” That moment has stayed with me.

John will truly be missed. His kindness, his humor, his unwavering spirit — they left a mark on all of us. For me, and for so many others, this still doesn’t feel real.

May he rest in peace, surrounded by comfort and love. My deepest condolences to his beloved Diane and all his family. We were lucky to know him.
